FREE NATURE ACTIVITY OFFERED FOR CHILDREN

Kindergartners-5th graders are invited to join the Wild Child Program, facilitated by Western Carolina University (WCU) students. The event will take place on April 2, 2020 from 5:30 PM-7:00 PM at Bicentennial Park located in Sylva (close to the Jackson County Public Library). Children will have the chance to get outside, paint rocks, and enjoy the environment around them. Incentives will also be provided. Parents or guardians must attend with their children, and both older and younger siblings are welcome to participate as well!

This event is presented through a partnership with Western Carolina University Parks and Recreation Department and the Jackson County Department of Public Health.
